The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 8. to Saturday June 12. 1731.

Hague, June 19, N. S.

HER Grace the Dutchess of Newcastle arrived Yesterday at Rotterdam, and here this Afternoon. Major General Sutton is likewise landed, and expected here this Evening. The Duke of Richelieu left this Place Yesterday to return to his Regiment at Lisle. The Prussian Envoy notified Yesterday to the States the Marriage of the Princess Royal of Prussia with the Margrave of Bareith.

Whitehall, June 12.

On Wednesday last, about Ten in the Morning, their Majesties, accompanied by his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, the Duke, and their Royal Highnesses the Princesses, and attended by several Lords and Ladies of the Court, came to Hyde Park from Richmond, where the Four Troops of Horse Guards, and the Two Troops of Horse Grenadier Guards passed in Review before His Majesty, performed their Exercise on Foot and on Horseback, and made a very fine Appearance.

Hampton Court, June 12.

On Thursday last, about Noon, their Majesties and the Royal Family came hither from Richmond. Yesterday being the Anniversary of His Majesty's Succession to the Throne, great Demonstrations of Joy were shewn here on that Occasion, and at Night there was a Ball at Court.

Hampton Court, June 12.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint his Grace William Duke of Devonshire to be Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Seal, in the Room of Abraham Stanyan and Robert Jackson, Esqrs. who were appointed Commissioners for executing the Office of His Majesty's Privy Seal.

Whitehall, June 10, 1730.

The Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations having been commanded by His Majesty to receive all Proposals that may be laid before them for preventing the pernicious Practice of running of Wooll from England and Ireland, and to consider of and propose proper Methods to prevent such Practices for the future, and lay the same before the House of Peers in the Beginning of the next Session of Parliament; These are therefore to inform all Persons who may have any such Proposals to make, that the said Lords Commissioners for Trade are ready to receive the same at their Office in Whitehall. By Command of their Lordships, Alured Popple.

The Committee for Letting the Bridge House Lands, give Notice, that they intend to Lett by Lease, One Messuage in the Old Change, London, in the Possession of the Widow Eaton; one other Messuage in Newgate-street, called the Lamb, in the Possession of James Fuller, Hosier; and also the East Side of London Bride Gate, with the new Room over the Gateway, and Leads over the same; and also Liberty of building on the two vacant Places over the Gullet adjoyning to London-Bridge Gate, on the South Side thereof, lying on the East and West Sides of the Street or Passage there: And the Committee will sit in the Council Chamber of the Guildhall, London, on Wednesday the 16th of June Instant, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, to receive Proposals for the same severally; of which more particular Information may be had at the Comptroller's Office in the Bridge-house, Southwark.

Whereas Application hath been made unto us whose Names are under set, Commissioners appointed in and by an Act of Parliament, intituled, (An Act for reviving and amending an Act made in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King William the Third, Intituled An Act to prevent Exactions of the Occupiers of Locks and Wears upon the River of Thames Westward, and for ascertaining the Rates of Water Carriage upon the said River) that the Owners or Occupiers of several Locks, Bucks and Wears on the said River exact exorbitant Prices of the Owners of Barges, Boats and Vessels, for the Passage of their Barges, Boats and Vessels; And also that the Owners of Towing Paths on the said River exact exorbitant Prices from the said Owners of Barges, Boats and Vessels for the Use of their Towing Paths; which Matters appearing to us to want an immediate Redress, we the said Commissioners (according to the Directions of the said Act of Parliament) do appoint a General Meeting of the Commissioners in the said Act named, to be held on Monday the Twenty First Day of this Instant June, at the Guildhall in the Town of Reading, in the County of Berks, to hear and determine the Subject Matter of the said Complaint.
